Referring to the John Kyle, a St. Louis telegram received last night, says: 'It is thought the Kyle can be raised. Some of her deck load has been saved, but the freight in the hold will be badly damaged. Captain Bernard started today for the wreck. The Kyle is insured for about $40,000 in Cincinnati, Pittsburg and Wheeling offices, tier original cost was $100,000. Had she not sunk she would lrave changed hands today in exchange for a New Orleans packet and $30,000."

An Evansville dispatch of the 6th to the Cincinnati Commercial says: "The stockholders of the Evansville and Tennessee River Packet Company to-day elected as Directors Dr. Ellis, of Florence, Ala.; Captain Tom L. Lee, of Paducah; Captain John Gilbert, of Golconda, and W. G. Brown and W. F. Nesbit, of Evansville. The Directors elected John Gilbert President and Superintendent, and W. G. Brewn Secretary and Treasurer. The question of building a new boat for the trade was discussed, but not determined. Captain Gus. Desouchet will command the Robt. Mitchell the balance of the season.

The Belle Lee, before leaving here, sent a bandsome pyramid cake to the Ladies' fair at Collierville-a present from Captain Hicks. Captain Bernard, of the St. Louis underwriters, will arrive to-day by rail on his way to the John Kyle, and goes down from here on the John B. Maude.
